STREET LIST

The West Ward School (cover photo)
The West Ward School was one of four elementary schools built in 1847 to accommodate the influx of children whose families had moved to South Reading (Wakefield) after the railroad was built in 1845 (making commuting to Boston possible).

This was a one room school with one teacher teaching 54 children in one ungraded class. In 1858 the second floor room was added and two teachers taught 64 children. (The building is still in use with two grades and 45 pupils.)

The building was always painted white until 1953 when it became a "little red schoolhouse"
